Sickness Unto Death

It's a shame
That I couldn't keep that shit to myself
Gotta hold myself back from fading away

Babe I'm scared
I'm not sure what's going on in your head
Cos you been living in a day that's not been
Gotta hold myself back from fading away

And all these stars that we meet, they're fading away
So I'll just go to this party to laugh through my shame
And all the stars that we meet, they're fading away
Yeah, yeah

It's a shame
That I couldn't keep that shit to myself
Gotta hold myself back from fading away

I'm so stupid
I really thought I'd burrowed into your head
But you've been living in a day that's not been
I push and pull still I feel I'm fading away

And all these stars that we meet, they're fading away
So I'll just go to this party to laugh through my shame
And all the stars that we meet, they're fading away
Yeah, yeah
