

Travis MacDonald
Trance
22 July - 20 August 2022

Envy6011 is proud to present new works by Travis MacDonald, notably his first solo exhibition in New Zealand. Trance is a series of paintings on altered canvases drawing references from crafts and social dynamics within counter-culture movements, such as communal living. Drawing upon his upbringing in rural Australia and New Zealand, MacDonald's bizarre-yet-familiar works portray his poetic hand and the world as he sees it.

Travis MacDonald (b. 1990, Bunnythorpe, New Zealand) lives and works in Melbourne, Australia. He graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Art at the Victorian College for the Arts, Melbourne in 2011 and has been exhibiting regularly since. Selected exhibitions include: Rain Sounds, Niagara Galleries, Melbourne (2021); Postcards, Gallerie Magnus Karlsson, Sweden (2021); Freedom is the gentle exploration of boundaries [...], Discordia Gallery, Melbourne (2020); Painting more Painting, Australian Centre for Contemporary Art, Melbourne (2016).
